

PICTURES 'DRY' D. C. AS WILD AND WOOLY

An debate on the prohibition measures now before the House progresses the spotlight continues to play on the District of Columbia, which is pointed to as an example of a "dry" law on a community which is denied the right to have a say in the matter.

Congressman Charles P. Coady, of Maryland, inserted into the Congressional Record for distribution far and near a description of the District under the "dry" regime that would do credit to the wild and woolly west in its wildest and woolliest days.

The Maryland member was discussing the pending dry legislation. He produced a letter from a former newspaper man "who in his day was one of the most noted journalists here in Washington, an observant man, a man not given to exaggeration."

"He is now retired," said Mr. Coady. "Let me read what he says about conditions here in the District of Columbia. He answers the statement that prohibition has bettered the conditions in the District, and he starts out by saying:

"Have they? Come over to Washington and see for yourself. In the last twelve months there have been more murders, more burglaries, more rapes, more pocket-picking, more hold-ups than in any similar period during the 'wild' era. The police force seems to have disappeared from the streets of the city. It is said they are scouring all the adjacent country roads in Maryland, chasing after pints of whiskey in the pockets of bootleggers."

"Of late there is not an hour in the day or night that some crime is not committed in this city, and not minor offenses by any means. In one week there were five criminal assaults made on white women by negroes and not one offender caught. Women are almost afraid to venture out alone after dark."

Mr. Coady says this is "a truthful picture of conditions in the District of Columbia since you forced prohibition down the throats of the people here without giving them an opportunity to be heard."

so much better. "I simply will not have mother cooking in this heat," declared an

"When I come of the sweet tooth, I am looking at the five y and t around the table and the dinner to-night."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

MRS. E. W. KILMER WEDS MAJ. SUTTON

NEW YORK, July 15.—So much of a surprise was the marriage yesterday of Mrs. Esther Wadsworth Kilmer to Maj. Redondo Sutton, U. S. A., that even many of those invited had not heard of the bride's divorce from Willis Sharpe Kilmer, widely-known banker, newspaper owner and horseman, of Binghamton.

Kilmer and his wife were divorced four months ago, after being separated more than a year.

The marriage of Mrs. Kilmer and Maj. Sutton was solemnized last night in the rose room of the Ritz-Carlton Hotel. By her marriage, it is said, the bride will lose an annuity of $25,000, allowed for by Kilmer at the time of their divorce.

Randolph Hicks, of Richmond, Va., was best man.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Priest Wadsworth of Binghamton, and was married to Kilmer in March, 1909. The cause of their divorce is said to have been a suit for $100,000 brought against Kilmer last November by Miss Bertha Hubert, of Binghamton, although the action never came to trial.

Major Sutton is the son of the late James Nuttall Sutton, of San Francisco, Cal., who made a fortune as a pioneer railroad builder. Major Sutton was graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point, and was in the regular army. He took aviation and was ranked as the sixth best aviator when he resigned to take up his father's business. He enlisted in the aviation corps when the war started between this country and Germany.

DOCTORS DEMAND SHORTER HOURS AND HIGHER FEES

EVANSVILLE, Ind., July 15.—Higher fees and shorter hours are wanted by the doctors of Evansville. Ten Vanderburg County Medical Association has appointed a committee to revise the schedule of fees, with a provision for a working day of eight hours.

It is to your best interest to put your Liberty Bond interest in W. S. S.

so much better. "I simply will not have mother cooking in this heat," declared an

"When I come of the sweet tooth, I am looking at the five y and t around the table and the dinner to-night."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

"I am not," said Susan and her mother. "I am not eating cake in the middle of the day."

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY President and Mrs. Wilson Guests of French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand at Embassy—News of the Diplomats

THE PRESIDENT AND MRS. WILSON paid honor to the Republic of France in general and the French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand in particular last evening by attending the reception at the French embassy. This brilliant function was given in honor of Bastille Day, the national fête day of France, and to celebrate the fact that yesterday soldiers of France and the United States marched side by side through the Arc de Triomphe.

With the President and Mrs. Wilson were Miss Margaret Wilson, Mrs. Bertha Bolling, and Col. Clarence Ridley, the President's military aide, M. and Mme. Jusserand met the party from the White House at the embassy entrance and escorted them to the drawing room. They remained long enough to greet many of the guests in an informal way, after having first taken their places in the receiving line.

At supper President Wilson responded to the toast to the United States proposed by the ambassador, who spoke a few moving words appropriate to the occasion. This was the first social event attended by the President and Mrs. Wilson since their return from France and the second time they have been present at an official function at the French embassy. The former occasion was on November 25, last, when the French Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand gave a reception to celebrate the joint entrance of French and American troops into Alsace-Lorraine.

Mrs. Wilson wore a becoming gown of black tulle with jet and steel beads, with a coronet of jet in her hair, and to complete her costume she had a graceful wrap of black chiffon. Miss Wilson's gown was of apple green chiffon and tulle, and Miss Bolling wore rose-colored georgette crepe. Mme. Jusserand's costume was of blue and gold brocade, made on simple and dignified lines and trimmed with lovely old lace. She wore a coronet and necklace of diamonds. Jewels—jewels which were never worn during the four years of the war.

Laurel—for Victory. The embassy was effectively decorated with laurel, for victory, cut flowers, and flags; and a section of the Marine Band played during the evening, with the "Marseillaise" and "The Star-Spangled Banner" as a fitting climax to the musical selections. Members of the embassy staff assisted the Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand in dispensing hospitality.

The Vice President and Mrs. Marshall, with their guest, Mrs. William Line Elder, were among those present, and others in the brilliant assemblage were the Spanish Ambassador and Mme. de Riano, the Italian Ambassador and Countess di Cellere, the Chilean Ambassador and Mme. Mathieu, the Secretary of War and Mrs. Baker, the Postmaster General and Mrs. Burleson, the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels, the Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Lane, and the Secretary of Commerce and Mrs. Redfield, and the Speaker of the House and Mrs. Frederick H. Gillett. The company also included such of the diplomats as are now in Washington, members of the foreign relations committee of the Senate and the House, with their wives, friends of the Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand in both the Senate and the House, also with their wives, representatives of resident society, the French residents of Washington, and a large number of army and navy officers, especially those who saw service in France.

The Ambassador and Mme. Jusserand, who have just returned to the embassy after spending over six months in France, expect to remain in town the greater part of the summer, taking occasional week-end motor trips by way of a vacation.

To Be Guests at Grassland. Mrs. Thomas Riley Marshall and her guest, Mrs. William Line Elder, of Indianapolis, will be entertained at tea at Grassland tomorrow, with Mrs. Francis E. Warren as hostess.

Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. Elder are spending a good deal of time at the Secretary of Labor and Mrs. Wilson and their daughters are leaving for their home in New York on Wednesday. The Secretary will return the first of next week.

Miss Sidney Burleson, daughter of the Postmaster General, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crain at Mt. Victory on the lower Potomac.

Ekegrens to Massachusetts. The minister of Sweden, W. A. F. Ekegren, who landed in New York yesterday with Mme. Ekegren, will accompany her to their summer home at Edgartown, Martha's Vineyard, Mass., before returning to Washington. They are now at the Vanderbilt Hotel, New York, with Mme. Ekegren's mother, Mrs. John P. Jackson, who went on from Martha's Vineyard to their home in the neighborhood of Edgartown under Mrs. Jackson's care since early summer.

The minister, who is taking his first real vacation since the beginning of the war, and Mme. Ekegren, sailed for Europe early in the season and have been in Sweden most of the time since they left Washington.

Raymond T. Baker, Director of the Mint, who has been visiting the Western mints, is on his way home and is expected in Washington next Monday.

Mrs. Baker is at Holmwood, her place at Lenox, Mass., and gave a dinner there last evening for her father, Capt. Isaac E. Emerson, of Baltimore, who is her guest.

Mrs. Benjamin Hellen, who is in Orange county, Va., for a ten days' stay, is expected back in Washington on Thursday or Friday.

Capt. and Mrs. Chauncey Stigand, who were guests of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Wallace Neff, during the early summer, are now in the Adirondacks. Captain Stigand expects to sail shortly for his home in the Sudan, but Mrs. Neff will remain in this country some time longer, and will spend the greater part of next winter with Dr. and Mrs. Neff.

Eberles on Vacation. Rear Admiral Edward W. Eberle, formerly superintendent of the Naval Academy, and Mrs. Eberle are spending a week in Lenox, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Blaine, Jr., are at the Chatham Hotel, New York.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. Albert G. Winterhalter have been spending some time in the Yosemite valley in

MISS DOROTHY CAMPBELL,
Daughter of Congressman and Mrs. Philip Pitt Campbell.

California. They are expected back in Washington next month.

The Resident Commissioner from Porto Rico and Mrs. Felix Cordova Davila arrived in Washington yesterday from a short wedding trip. The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Davila took place Wednesday at the summer home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Andres de Gonzalez, at Rutherford, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. MacNulty announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mildred MacNulty, to Lieut. George Lyman Clark, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A. The wedding took place in Christ Church, Alexandria, Va., on Saturday, July 12, at 6 o'clock. The Rev. William Jackson Morton officiating. Following Lieutenant Clark's discharge from the army the couple will make their home in the West. Mrs. Clark is the granddaughter of the late Mrs. Laura C. Wilson, of Woodside, Md.

Mrs. Whitelaw Reid will go today to her camp in the Adirondacks from Ophir Farm, White Plains, N. Y.

David R. Francis, former American ambassador to Russia, and Mrs. Francis, who have been at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., are now making a short visit at Newcastle-by-the-Sea, N. H.

Senator and Mrs. E. J. Gay, of Louisiana, have rented the home of Judge and Mrs. Stanton Peelle, in Chevy Chase, for the summer. Stanton Peelle, Jr., who went to Eaglesmere, Pa., with his family, has returned to Washington. His family will spend the summer at Eaglesmere and Mr. Peelle will join them from time to time.

Entertainers at Shoreham. Col. and Mrs. P. J. H. Farrell, of Chicago, are at the Shoreham and entertained at dinner there on Friday evening and at the Army and Navy Club on Saturday evening. Mrs. Farrell joined her husband last week upon his return from France. He organized and commanded an army base hospital in the advance sector on the Meuse river in the Vosges mountains during hostilities. They will go to New York and the Adirondacks in a few days to visit their daughter, Mrs. John Caldwell. Their son, Capt. W. G. Farrell, U. S. Marine Corps, has returned from the Army of Occupation, Germany, and is stationed at Quantico. Colonel and Mrs. Farrell are frequent visitors in Washington and have many friends in public life and official circles. Col. Farrell succeeded the late Lieut. Gen. Arthur MacArthur as commander-in-chief of the veterans' organization, the Army of the Philippines, and was chairman of their legislative committee that obtained the McKinley Congressional medal for the volunteers who fought in the Philippine insurrection and the pension for widows of veterans of the Spanish-Philippines-Boxer campaigns.

Col. and Mrs. John G. Capers have had as guests this week Capt. William H. Johnson, Lieut. John P. Satterlee, brother-in-law and nephew of Colonel Capers. They are among the soldiers just returned from France. Lieut. Ellison Capers, Jr., and Major Capers James, who have also visited their uncle, are now on special detail in Washington.

Dr. and Mrs. T. V. Hammond have gone to Ocean City, Md., where they have taken a cottage for the summer.

Miss Elizabeth Edes has bought the residence at 1166 Sixteenth street, once the home of Corcoran Thom. Miss Edes now resides with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fitzhugh Talman at 1815 G street. Mrs. Talman was formerly Miss Grace Edes.

Purchase D. C. Home. Pay Inspector and Mrs. Edmond W. Bonaffon have purchased the house at 1164 Sixteenth street, recently occupied by former Congressman and Mrs. William Ryburn, who are now at their summer place at New London, Conn. Mr. Ryburn, who was in the service, has been recently released.

Pay Inspector and Mrs. Bonaffon are now in Newport but will take possession of the house in the fall.

Mrs. Albert Ordway and Miss Valerie Padelford have gone to Lockport, Mass., for a short stay. Later they will go to New London, Conn., to spend the season.

The Third Secretary of the Japanese Embassy and Mme. Nuida have taken an apartment at the Highlands, where they are now residing.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron M. Parker, Jr., who are spending the summer with Mrs. Parker's mother, Mrs. Elliott, at Warwick, Elliott City, Md., will entertain at a dance tomorrow evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bancroft Carroll, who are sailing shortly for Europe.

Miss Inez Hogan, a teacher of art in the public schools, is studying in the Berkshire Summer School of Art, at Monterey, Mass. She is taking a post-graduate course in order to further her work in Washington. Miss Hogan lives at 115 Rhode Island avenue northeast and is the daughter of John Hogan, of the Government Printing Office. She will be remembered as the designer of costumes in the local community operas.

Takes Furlough Here. Sergt. Robert Byrne has returned to his home, 234 N street, on a furlough of ten days. He is stationed at the hospital at Camp Upton, N. Y., where the vocational re-education of wounded soldiers is being undertaken in a company by the Red Cross, under his direction. He expects to be discharged in the fall, when the volunteer teaching he is now doing will be completed. The Red Cross has offered him a similar position in France, under a three year enlistment, which he has under consideration.

Charlton Rout and his brother, Thomas Rout, who are touring the country by automobile, are now in Yellowstone Park, where they will remain for three weeks.

ASK TUMULTY TO DESCRIBE HIMSELF

Two army lieutenants, one who lost an arm and the other a leg in the war, and are in Washington in the interest of the bills providing for vocational training for wounded soldiers, sailors and marines, are destined to get something like a shock when they call at the White House to see Secretary Tumulty, who is somewhat of a practical joker.

Returning from the Jersey coast, where he left Mrs. Tumulty and his youngsters, Mr. Tumulty met the two officers on the train and engaged them in conversation. They told him they had "telephoned Tumulty" and that he had promised to do what he could for the legislation in behalf of the wounded men.

"What kind of a fellow is that man Tumulty?" the secretary inquired about himself.

Just what sort of an estimation the two officers had of the President's secretary was not divulged by the latter in telling about the incident.

OFFERS BILL FOR PERSHING WELCOME

Gen. John J. Pershing, commander of the A. E. F. in France, would be officially received by Congress and "Pershing Day" would be designated in his honor, if a resolution introduced in the House yesterday by Congressman Charles P. Caldwell, of New York, becomes a law.

The resolution provides for a joint committee of seven members of the House and five members of the Senate, who would arrange for appropriate ceremonies for the reception of the general.

"LITERARY" RATS APPEAR. RICHMOND, Va., July 15.—"Literary rats" have made their appearance here. In one of the local newspaper offices the rodents consumed six encyclopaedias, a World almanac, and a telephone book.

GASOLINE BURNS KILL. CLARKSBURG, W. Va., July 14.—Miss Florence Martin, aged twenty-eight years, of Roseburg, near here, is dead of burns when her clothing caught fire following the explosion of gasoline.

Hair On Face DeMiracle. Ordinary hair growths on face, neck and arms soon become coarse and bristly when merely removed from the surface of the skin. The only common-sense way to remove objectionable hair is to attack it under the skin, where it grows, with the original sanitary liquid, deMiracle, by absorption.

Only genuine deMiracle has a money-back guarantee in package. At toilet counters in 80c, $1 and $2 sizes, or by mail from us in plain wrapper on receipt of price.

FREE book with testimonials of highest authorities explaining what causes hair, why it increases and how deMiracle dissolves it, mailed in plain sealed envelope on request. deMiracle, Park Ave. and 12th St., New York.

THE EAGLE AMERICAN-CHINESE RESTAURANT

316 Ninth St. N. W. Business Lunch 45c, 11 to 2 Daily Special Dinner, 11:30 A. M. to 5 P. M. Sunday Dinner, 11:30 A. M. to 5 P. M. Telephone Franklin 7712

S. Kann Sons Co.

THE BUSY CORNER PENNA. AVE. AT 8 TH. ST.

Open 9:15 A. M. Close 6:00 P. M.

One Carload of These $10.50 Hero Lawn Swings

—Size for four passengers in a big sale tomorrow, $8.75

—These swings have been scarce the last few weeks, therefore our announcement of the receipt of a carload should bring a big response tomorrow—particularly so as we have priced them so very special.

—The swings are made of hardwood, heavy stock (4x1 inch), and are 8 ft. tall and take up ground space 8x5 ft. The frame is painted a bright red, the seats, hangers, foot-board and cross braces a rich green.

—Swing with canopy is priced $14.95.

—Because the greater the imminence of our showing the more rapidly they seem to melt away. It is hard to resist such beautiful and varied designs, especially when offered at so low a price, and many women are buying two or three for wear now, also one or more patterns to lay away for next season, which by the way is a wise plan for prices may be higher next year.

—We simply cannot describe them, there are too many different kinds. Come and see them for yourself.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Kann's—Street Floor.

—One of the most popular lines of wash skirts we have carried this season. We know this by the many times we have had to reorder the styles in this line.

—New models are constantly being added also, giving a fine range of styles to select from. This material seems to launder excellently, which is one secret, perhaps, of its popularity.

—At the same price are many styles of smart gabardine skirts, trimmed in pockets, pearl buttons, and deep belts.

—All sizes to select from.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Kann's—Street Floor.

Women's Boot Style Silk Hose, 79c

—Extra value is this lot for tomorrow's selling. They are in WHITE only, full regular made, with high spliced heels, double soles and mercerized garter tops. All sizes Wednesday, 79c a pair.

—Women's "Radmoor" Silk Hose, in black and white, with seamless feet, mock seam in legs, high spliced heels and garter tops, $1.25 a pair.

—Women's Fine White Lisle Hose, seamless style with high spliced heels, double soles and garter tops; also in brown, gray and champagne, a 50c pair.

—Women's Fine Lisle Hose with extra wide tops, full regular made in black and white, 75c and 85c values, special a pair, 35c.

Kann's—Street Floor.

New Skirtings and Pleatings

Were Never More in Demand Than Now and We Have Plenty

—ORGANDY SKIRTINGS, in white, Copenhagen and pink, a yard, $1.79 to $3.00.

—NET SKIRTING, with tucks, in white and ecru. A yard, $1.79 to $2.50.

—NET SKIRTING, with ruffle. A yard, $2.25 to $3.98.

—NET AND LACE PLEATINGS. A yard, 29c to $3.00.

Kann's—Street Floor.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Kann's—Second Floor.

Kann's—Second Floor.